

DOUGLAS COLLEGE THEATRE AUDITION

Please prepare one of the following monologues for your audition, as well as one monologue of your choice. Your chosen monologue should be around 90 seconds long and be excerpted from a published play.

1. Waiting for the Parade by John Murrell-Eve

|

my village just as my father sunk his to plant the seeds. And my hands will be strong again. And my house will smell once more of patchouli and peppermint. And there'll be land outside. Four acres to share. Even though that's all! It's good land. It's land. It land that gives life. Four acres. If they're not ours!