

CECS 260 - Computer Architecture

CECS 260 - Computer Architecture

2 to be Purchased by Students

N: Textbooks and Materials

...uth, the elderly, natives, athletes.

6. Societal sub-groups (e.g., women, yo

...regarding one's personal values and needs, the influence of ...ferences, and respect for the limits of one's knowledge/ability

7. Self-awareness in one's past exper and professional addiction

...society, and are often the
...le are in contact with a wife

...problems of addiction are pervasive in our so
...underlying cause of many other reasons: peop
...range of social services. Awareness of signs and symptoms,
...local Alcohol and Drug Programs system of care is necessa
...identifying concerns and making effective referrals

...nowledge of the
...ary for

9. Content knowledge of basic drug concepts, terminology, my 12-step/self-help programs, and addiction/recovery processes foundation for working in the social services

...petent practice. Technical proficiency must be balanced with a caring
...ude, empathy, sensitivity, acceptance of a wide range of behaviours

com attit

...their right to
...ation

...and respect for the rights of others, including tr
self-determin

...diction" relates not only to the field of chemical dependency,
...wide range of behaviours and processes (e.g., gambling,
...ng, relationships)

11. The term "ad but also to a eating, worki

...a powerfully destructive but very treatable condition. The
...ee any persons

12. Addiction is a maintaini

EVALUATIONS:

Selection of evaluation and assessment tools

1. Adherence to college evaluation policy

2. A combination of evaluation methods that include students and demonstrates different ways of knowing, i.e. oral

3. A developmental approach to evaluation that is sequenced and progressive.

4. Evaluation that involves students and instructors.

5. Commitment to student participation in evaluation through such processes as self and peer evaluation, participation in program/instructor evaluation