

NAME AND NUMBER OF COURSE

R. EVALUATION

Due to the experiential nature of the course, the following activities are necessary to maximize the learning of the students. The specific weighing and number of the following factors will be determined by the instructor in accordance with college policy.

1. Attendance at all class activities will be described.

2. Completion of various assignments, exercises, inventories, etc.

3. Quizzes and/or tests.

4. Report on reading about topic(s) related to the course content and objectives.

5. A final written summary of the learning and growth which the student has achieved.

6. An action plan designed to promote personal growth.

7. Participation in class activities.