Piano

A minimum of three pieces to be selected by the instructor. One selection may be replaced by an accompaniment of appropriate difficulty.

4. Sight Reading

Instruments only

Materials of appropriate complexity in terms of key, rhythm, range and style are to be selected by the instructor. The student will demonstrate accuracy and an understanding of musical features and characteristics.

5. Other Materials

At the discretion of the instructor.

Wind Instruments, Guitar, Voice, Percussion and String Instruments

Orchestral excerpts, special techniques, transposition, etc.

Piano

Transposition of simple hands together pieces to any major or minor key up or down a major or minor third.

Harmonization of melodies with extended range up to one octave, simple modulations to first relationship keys, to include an enriched harmonic vocabulary.

6. Performance

- a) Students may perform in one student recital during the semester.
- b) Students are expected to attend all Douglas College student and professional recitals.

O: Methods of Instruction

The student will receive one-half hour of private instruction per week for 12 weeks and will be expected to practice adequately as specified by the instructor.

P: Textbooks and Materials to be Purchased by Students

The instructor will recommend suitable materials.

Q: Means of Assessment

The grade will be calculated by the instructor on the basis of weekly achievement in the various aspects of the course. This will be recorded by the instructor at the conclusion of each lesson. Factors to be considered are progress, attendance, punctuality, musicianship and completion of minimum requirements.
